Master's Message

This November we will honor our Veterans with a special program. If you are a Veteran or have a friend, neighbor or relative who is a Veteran (they need not be a Mason) invite them to join us on Tuesday Nov. 4th. Special pins made for the occasion will be presented to all veterans. Please make it a point to come out and honor our heroes, "Those who have served".

I would like to thank all the brethren who came out for our Past Masters Night. I also want thank those who traveled with me to West Chester Lodge's District Visitation on October 6th. We narrowly recaptured the Hagel Cup.

There is one remaining District Visitation, to Kennett Lodge on November 6th. Kennett always has a nice spread of fabulous food. If we retain the prized Hagel Cup it's ours until 2015. Please join us if you can.

Fraternally, Bro. Thomas P. DeFroschia, Worshipful Master
Brandywine Goddard Lodge No. 383

LAST CHANCE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE TASTE OF HOME PROJECT

We are sending items, for Christmas, to our troops on the front line in Afghanistan. The brave men and women are putting their lives on the line, away from their loved ones, during the time we celebrate Thanksgiving and the Christmas Holidays. Please contribute items mentioned in the September Notice or send a generous donation so we can purchase those things we take for granted. Final collection of items are being accepted at the November Stated meeting. Please send monetary donations, to the Secretary. Make checks payable to Brandywine Goddard Lodge No. 383.

2015 Dues are now being accepted.

Make your $66.00 Dues check payable to BRANDYWINE – GODDARD LODGE No 383.

Please mail to the Secretary's address on back of Notice.

Dues Cards will be issued to PAID MEMBERS with the January 2015 Notice

50 year members do not pay dues.
